

Dadiji's special letter for Rakhi (1-7-2000)

To all the brothers and sisters who are the decoration of the Brahmin clan and who have received the blessing of constantly being protected by the imperishable canopy of the Supreme Protector Father, Teacher and Satguru, please accept many many greetings on this special festival of Rakhi.

At the lovely most elevated confluence age the Father, the Supreme Soul Himself becomes our Protector and protects us with imperishable blessings. Who else apart from the Father can give us such great fortune! So each one definitely remembers in his or her own heart again and again: I have true love for the one BapDada. That is, all of us brides, souls, have true love of all relationships that is constant and free from obstacles. This Rakshabandhan is the memorial of such true love. Baba says: Your vision and attitude should not be drawn to anyone except Me. This is known as tying the rakhi of true purity. In a physical way, sisters tie a rakhi on their brothers, but the true rakhi is the subtle attitude, one that is not wasteful towards anything. Only souls who maintain such an attitude receive the special blessing of being imperishable from the Father. Such souls are called the true Raja Yogis.

Baba also gives the signal that whilst living at home with the family, there should be the pure vision of brotherhood. Apply the tilak of the drishti, attitude and awareness of brotherhood to everyone. Tell me, will all of you tie such a unique and spiritual rakhi? Together with this Baba has given some special signals connected with Rakhi; these are being sent to you. I am sure that whilst bringing these signals to your awareness again and again, you will definitely experience the avyakt angelic stage. I hope that each of you will definitely tie this rakhi on yourself. However, in terms of unlimited service, this year, whoever you tie a rakhi on, have them make this promise for the "Culture of Peace and Purity", because it is only through purity that the soul receives the power of spiritual peace and with the power of peace you also become conquerors of the physical organs. So give everyone this message.

When you meet VIP souls at Rakhi, whilst tying a rakhi on them, give them such an experience through the light and might of your subtle drishti that they feel that you truly are the Brahma Kumaris of the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, Shiva, the Shiv Shaktis, who are bringing benefit to all the people all over the world. At Rakhi time, you tie a rakhi to all those in prison and make them promise not to perform such sinful actions again. So a lot of this type of service has to be done so that people become liberated from all the corrupt and violent activities that are taking place in the world and attain peace. Before Rakhi, many different points from the avyakt murlis, points for bhatthis and also points from Mama, teachings have been sent to you. I am sure you will work with all these points and with the yoga bhatthi, fill yourself with new power and new enthusiasm. With these good wishes,

B.K. Prakashmani.
