

Essence: Sweet children, by having remembrance of Baba you will always remain cheerful. Practise renouncing all consciousness of your old body and do the service of purifying the atmosphere with your power of yoga.

Question: What effort must you make in order to claim your scholarship? What must you do to give yourself the tilak of sovereignty?

Answer: You will claim the tilak of sovereignty when you make effort to remain on the pilgrimage of remembrance, when you practise remaining in the consciousness of brotherhood, when you remove all consciousness of everyone's name and form and you no longer listen to wasteful matters. When you pay full attention to this study and only listen to that which Baba says and keep your ears closed to everything else will you be able to claim your scholarship.

Om shanti. Children, you understand that you are creating your kingdom for yourselves by following shrimat. Whatever service each of you does with your thoughts, words and actions, you are benefiting yourself. There is no question of any disturbance etc. in this remembrance. All that happens is that you gradually shed all the consciousness of your old body as you reach there. There is also a great deal of happiness in remembering Baba. With constant remembrance there would be nothing but happiness. It is when you forget Baba that you wilt. Children, you should always remain cheerful. Each of you is a soul. The Father of you souls is speaking through this mouth. I, this soul, am listening through these ears. You should make effort to form this habit. You have to return home in remembrance of Baba. It is this pilgrimage of remembrance that gives you a great deal of strength. You receive so much strength that you become the masters of the world. Baba says: Remember Me alone and your sins will be destroyed. You should make this firm. This is the mantra with which you can conquer everything. At the end only this will be useful to you. The message that you have to give to everyone is: Consider yourself to be a soul. Your body is perishable. Baba's order is: Remember Me and you will become pure. Children, you are sitting in remembrance of Baba. Together with that, you also have knowledge; you understand the knowledge of the Creator and the beginning, the middle and the end of creation. All of this knowledge is in you souls. You are the ones who spin the discus of self-realisation. Just in sitting here you are earning a great deal of income. You are earning an income day and night. You come here to earn a true income. A true income that you can carry across with you can't be earned anywhere else. You don't have any other business here; the atmosphere here is also good. The atmosphere is purified here with the power of yoga. You are doing yourselves a great deal of service. Those who serve themselves are the ones who serve Bharat. Neither this old world nor you will exist here later. The whole world is to become new. Children, all of this knowledge is in your intellects. You also understand that the service you did in the previous cycle is the same service you are doing now. Day by day, you make many others become similar to yourselves. The happiness that people experience when they hear this knowledge is so great that they have goose pimples. They say that they have never heard such knowledge from anyone before, that they only hear it from you Brahmins. There is no effort on the path of bhakti. Here, you have to forget the whole of the old world. Only Baba inspires you to have unlimited disinterest in the world. Children, you are also numberwise in this. Each of you experiences happiness numberwise; it is not the same for everyone. Everyone's knowledge and yoga are not equal. Other people go to bodily beings, whereas you come here to the One without a body of His own. The more effort you make to have remembrance, the more satopradhan you become and the more your happiness increases. This is the pure love between souls and the Supreme Soul. He is incorporeal. The more rust you have removed from yourself, the more you will attract others. You can check yourself to see what degree of happiness you experience. There is no question here of sitting in special postures etc. This is not hatha yoga. Just sit comfortably and continue to remember Baba. Even whilst lying down you can still remember Baba. The unlimited Father says: Remember Me and your sins will be cut away and you will also become satopradhan. You should remember with a great deal of love your unlimited Father who is also your Teacher as well as your Satguru. Maya obstructs you in this. You should check: Did I eat in remembrance of Baba and whilst remaining cheerful? You lovers have found your Beloved and so you should remain very cheerful.

By staying in remembrance of Baba you will accumulate a great deal. The destination is very steep. You have to be transformed a great deal. Previously, you were senseless but you are now becoming very sensible. Your aim and objective is first-class. You understand that you will renounce that old skin in remembrance of Baba and adopt a new one. When you reach your karmateet stage, you will shed that skin for good. As you come close to that stage you will remember your home. Baba's knowledge is very sweet. Children, you should experience so much intoxication! God is sitting in this chariot and teaching you! Your stage is now ascending. It has been said that when your stage is ascending everyone benefits. You are not listening to anything new. You understand that you are listening to the same things again that you have heard many times before. You bubble with intoxication inside as you listen to these things once again. You are the unknown warriors, but very well known. You change the whole world into heaven and this is why the deities are worshipped so much. Both those who inspire others to act and those who act themselves are worshipped. Children, you understand that the sapling of those who belong to the deity religion is being planted. That system is also created from what happens now. You give yourself the tilak. Those who study well make themselves worthy of claiming their scholarship. Children, you should make a lot of effort for the pilgrimage of remembrance. By considering yourselves to be brothers all your consciousness of name and form can be removed. It is this that takes effort. You have to pay a great deal of attention to this. Don't listen to anything wasteful. Baba says: Only listen to that which I tell you. Don't listen to gossip! Keep your ears closed to that! Continue to show everyone the path to the abode of peace and the abode of happiness. The more people you show the path to, the more you benefit yourselves, the greater the income you earn. Baba has come to adorn you all and take everyone back home. Baba is always the children's Helper. Baba looks with love on those who have become His helpers. Baba very much remembers those who show the path to many others. They also experience the pull of Baba's remembrance. Only by having remembrance the rust will be removed. To remember Baba means to remember the home. Always keep saying: Baba, Baba. On this spiritual pilgrimage of you Brahmins you continue to remember the Supreme Spirit until you reach home. The more effort you make to become soul conscious, the more your physical sense organs will come under your control. The only method to control your physical sense organs is remembrance. You are spiritual swadarshanchakradharis, the jewels of the Brahmin clan. This clan of yours is the most elevated one. The Brahmin clan is even more elevated than the deity clan because Baba is teaching you. You belong to Baba in order to claim your inheritance of the kingdom of the world. It is only when you use the word "Baba" that you can experience the fragrance of your inheritance. Shiva is always called Baba. Shiv Baba is the Bestower of Salvation. No one else can grant salvation. Only the Incorporeal One is the true Satguru, the one who gives you your kingdom for half a kalpa. Therefore, the main thing is remembrance. In the final moment, you should have no consciousness of your body, wealth or property; nothing should be remembered. Otherwise, you will have to take rebirth here. People on the path of bhakti used to sacrifice themselves at Kashi. You have also sacrificed yourselves, that is, you have surrendered yourself to Baba. On the path of devotion, when they sacrifice themselves at Kashi, they believe that their sins are cut away. However, none of them has been able to return home. Destruction will take place when everyone has come down from up above. Baba will return and you too will return. When they say that the Pandavas melted away on the mountain top, that is like saying that they committed suicide! Baba explains everything very clearly. Children, I alone am the Bestower of Salvation. No bodily being can grant you salvation. Whilst worshipping you have continued to descend the ladder. Now that it is the end, Baba uses great force to make you ascend. This is called suddenly winning the lottery of unlimited happiness. There, they have horse races and here you have soul races. However, accidents take place because of Maya. Souls divorce Baba. Maya breaks the yoga of their intellect away from Him. When a soul is defeated by lust, all the income that soul has earned is lost. Lust is the greatest evil spirit. By overcoming lust you gain the world. Lakshmi and Narayan won the world. Baba says: In this your final birth you must definitely become pure. Only then can you become victorious. Otherwise, you will be defeated. This is your final birth in the land of death. Only Baba explains the secrets of twenty-one births in the land of immortality and sixty-three births in the land of death. Now ask your heart: Am I worthy to become Lakshmi or Narayan? The more virtues you imbibe, the greater your happiness will be! However, if it is not in your fortune, Maya doesn't allow the happiness to remain. The influence of Madhuban will increase day by day, because the main Battery is here. Baba has a great deal of love for the serviceable children. Baba uses a searchlight to pick out the good serviceable children. Those children also definitely remember Baba. Serviceable children are remembered by both Bap and Dada, and given a searchlight. It has been said, "I will love you if you love me". When you remember Baba, you receive the response of that remembrance. The whole world is on one side, and you, true Brahmins, are on the other. You are the children of Baba, the One who grants salvation to all, the highest-on-high Father. This divine birth of yours is as valuable as a diamond. Baba is the One who changes you from worthless shells into valuable diamonds. He gives you so much happiness that for half a kalpa that afterwards you don't need to remember Him. Baba says: Children, the wealth I gave you was limitless and yet you have lost it all. You used so many diamonds and jewels in building temples for me. Look how expensive diamonds are now! Previously, you would be given something extra when you bought diamonds. Now, you are not even given that when you buy vegetables! You understand how you won your kingdom and how you lost it. You are now winning it back once again. This knowledge is so wonderful, and yet it hardly stays in anyone's intellect! If you want to claim your kingdom back, you must follow shrimat completely. The dictates of your own mind are of no use to you. You must go beyond sound whilst alive. You have to surrender everything to Baba. You must make Him your Heir. People on the path of devotion make Him their Heir also. They give donations but the reward they receive only lasts for a short period. Here, you have to make this One your Heir for birth after birth. It has been said: Follow the Father. Those who follow His shrimat claim a high status. Only by belonging to the unlimited Father can you claim your unlimited inheritance. Shiv Baba is the Bestower; this is His treasure-store. When devotees give donations in the name of God, they receive temporary happiness in their next birth; those donations are indirect. Here, it is direct. Shiv Baba gives you the return for twenty-one births. Some of you think that you are giving to Shiv Baba. This is like an insult to Him. You are simply giving in order to receive. This is Baba's treasure store. By giving to this treasure-store, all of your pain and suffering can be removed. Children, you have to study in order to go to the land of immortality. This is the forest of thorns. Children, Baba is taking you to the garden of flowers, and so you should experience a great deal of happiness. You must also imbibe divine virtues. Children, Baba uses so much love to make you beautiful. Baba explains to you with a great deal of love. If you want to benefit yourself, imbibe divine virtues and don't look at anyone's defects. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.
