

- Essence: Sweet children, clean the cloth of the soul with Lux (aim) soap. Let no dirt remain inside you.
- Question: Which deep philosophy of karma do effort-making children know and thereby always remain engaged in their efforts?
- Answer: There is a burden of sinful actions of many births on souls and also many strong sanskars. Those sanskars cannot be transformed without yoga. Souls have become completely dirty by performing sinful actions. This is why you have to make the effort to become clean. Souls cannot be cleansed except through remembrance. Storms will come in remembrance, but no matter how many storms come, such souls will always remain engaged in their efforts.

Song: I am a small child, You are the Almighty Authority....

Om shanti. Those who come and belong to Baba say: Oh Baba, I am a new young child. Someone may be one month old, another 8 days old. Here, all are young. New children would say that they are young. Some are 20 years old and some are 15 years old. They continue to grow. They say: I have become Your child, but I am a young child. Give me my inheritance or shower knowledge on me. There is the shower of knowledge. This one is called the lucky chariot. The one who brought the Ganges of knowledge or the nectar of knowledge has many names. He is called Bhagirath (lucky chariot), Arjuna and also Daksh Prajapati. There is just the one Father of the People who gives everyone an aim. Many children come whose clothes are completely dirty and old. All clothes are different. Some are so worn out that they tear apart when being washed. The Father says: This laundry started 67 years ago. He has been washing the clothes all that time. Some have become clean whereas others, no matter how much you wash them, remain dirty. When you beat them hard with the stick of knowledge they tear apart. They then run away. It is understood for those who do not become clean, who do not become pure and purify others that it is not in their fortune. Those who become good also wash the clothes of others. This is also a laundry. When a soul becomes pure he receives a pure body. He becomes beautiful from ugly. All are ugly at this time. The Father has come to make you into an emperor of emperors because all are sinful souls. You come to know everything about this birth, but you are not aware of anything of your previous births. When you explain to others and they still don't understand or reform themselves, it is then understood that perhaps they were very impure previously and that is why their sanskars are not reformed. It is like when water is sprinkled on to hot griddle and it dries up completely. God comes and cleanses you with Lux soap. Each one's pulse is felt. The Father explains to you very easily. Children, by remembering Me, you souls will continue to become pure. You also have to become conquerors of attachment. The Father is the most beloved. Devotees have been doing bhakti for half the cycle from the copper age. They are the ones who are then going to become deities. You can tell/come to know this. The Father says: Whilst walking and moving around, remember Me, your Father. For instance, when a kumar and kumari become engaged to one another, they remember each other. Here, some even leave their Bridegroom and become those who run away. You don't even remember the Bridegroom who makes you into the masters of heaven! No one else could say this. I have come to uplift souls as sinful as Ajamil, exactly as I did in the previous cycle. The clothes of some are good but others are dirty. A wife says: Baba, make me pure and clean. The husband would say: I can't stay without vice. So, there is then a quarrel. Innocent ones are assaulted so much. Those who don't become pure create so many obstacles. No one can stop sannyasis (from leaving their homes). Even the Government cannot tell them: Who is going to look after your children etc? Here, there is a quarrel because of this. One becomes pure and the other remains as sinful as Ajamil. Those whose intellect has firm faith are not concerned about anyone else. They become complete destroyers of attachment. They would even kick aside a kingdom. On the path of devotion, there is the example of Meera. There are many such examples on the path of devotion. Here, there are scarcely any such examples. Yes, such ones will emerge who would say: I want to become pure. They would instantly say: I am not bothered about the kingdom. Just as those kings were not bothered about their queens and left them, in the same way, now such queens will emerge who won't be bothered about the kings. "I am going to become a master of heaven!" On the path of devotion, names of the kings who adopted renunciation are mentioned.

Now, this is the path of knowledge. Each one of you can understand to what extent you have become a laundryman. Why should you not become a good laundryman? It is numberwise even amongst laundryman. Abroad, they send their clothes somewhere else for washing and so they must definitely be washed very well. It is the same here. Some become clean very quickly and begin to follow shrimat. They become pure and also make others pure. When men don't become pure, the women have to tolerate so much. Nowadays, one has to be very careful because each human being is influenced by the 5 vices. Under the influence of anger, people cause a lot of damage. They say: Baba, I was influenced. They have arrogance of the body. When there is arrogance of the body, other vices also come. If you don't consider yourself to be a bodiless soul and remember the Father, your register will be spoilt. Storms will come in your mind, but you mustn't perform those acts through your physical organs. The Father says: To become a master of the world is not like going to your aunty's home! Lakshmi and Narayan became the masters of heaven and so they must have made some effort. The Father truly sits here and makes you into kings and queens of heaven, and so you have to follow His shrimat. Shrimat (elevated directions) are of the one Father, whereas all others are directions from evil spirits. As soon as you forget shrimat those evil spirits come. Maya quickly attacks you and makes you feel ashamed. You have to check yourself: How dirty am I? Good children like Kumarka etc. are doing service. Children go to wash the dirty impure clothes and enable others to conquer the 5 vices. The evil spirit of lust enters some and they completely defame the name. When they become dirty, they are not called BKs. Their register is then completely spoilt. Baba beats them with a stick so much in order to cleanse them. He says: Remember the Father and the clothes will be cleansed. Otherwise, the evil spirits will continue to come. If you are unable to imbibe, then understand that you are very dirty. Perhaps I was very bad in my previous birth. One should be ashamed. If you don't make effort, you remain dirty and don't become worthy. You come here to become worthy. If you are a good cloth you will become part of the sun and moon dynasty. Baba has now given you an unlimited, broad intellect. You now know the cycle of the whole world. People say: Oh Purifier! Therefore, He must surely be the one and only One who is called Heavenly God, the Father. He is Incorporeal. It is now 5000 years since this laundry was opened. The Father says: I open this laundry in Bharat every 5000 years. Through this yoga you will become ever-pure and then you won't become impure for 21 births. Maya doesn't exist there. You cannot go to Paradise without becoming pure. Many become subjects, but you mustn't be content with that. It is remembered: You are the Mother and Father and we are Your children, and we receive a lot of happiness of royalty, not of being subjects, through Your grace. This is the land of sorrow. However, some are wealthy because they have performed good actions. This is the worldly kingdom whereas the kingdom of heaven is parlokik. You children know how both these kingdoms are received. The Father says: By following My shrimat you won't experience punishment for 21 births. It isn't that you can leave your job etc. and come and sit here. You have to look after your children etc. since they are your creation. There is profit and loss in business. In the golden age you have the reward. There is no question of profit or loss there. Here, you profit so much through shrimat that there is no mention of loss for 21 births. By not taking complete knowledge, you receive a low status. By following shrimat you become conquerors of attachment and you thereby claim a good status. Such ones are respected here. You are to receive the kingdom numberwise, and so you should follow the mother and father. Mother and father learn actions and also teach you. They say: Follow shrimat and do not indulge in vice. Observe the precautions. Baba continues to give you many yuktis. Baba is the imperishable Surgeon whereas all the rest are patients. You become His helpers. You are assistant surgeons, numberwise. Shiv Baba alone is the cleverest imperishable Surgeon. It is numberwise amongst surgeons too. Some earn hundreds of thousands and whereas others are not even able to earn enough to feed themselves. Some let go of the Father's hand whilst moving along, and so it is said that they are dirty impure clothes. Their sanskars of many births pull them and so they are unable to imbibe knowledge. They are not coloured by knowledge. This too is the drama. Baba comes to give you happiness. Holy men will also be taken to the land of nirvana in their own section. The original eternal deity religion of Bharat has disappeared. They have become corrupt in their religion and action. There is no one worthy to be called a deity remaining any more. It is because they don't exist that I come and create them. Therefore, I definitely also have to take back souls of other religions. People wish to go to the land of liberation. The Father says: I have come for this. So, you children have to ask yourselves: Was I so impure previously that I am unable to imbibe knowledge? If you are unable to be seated on the throne of Mama and Baba, you will become maids and servants. The Father says: I have come to purify the impure. I have taken the support of this body. How else would I purify the impure? You children would say: We deities are becoming pure through the Father. We haven't become that as yet. We are effort-makers. You have to follow shrimat and become elevated. Only the Father gives this knowledge. Only God, the Father, is called the Knowledge-full One. He is the One who gives you the information of the whole of Brahmand, the incorporeal world, the subtle region, the corporeal world and the beginning, middle and end of the world. You too become knowledge-full. Some become knowledge-full whereas others don't imbibe anything at all. It would be understood that it is not in their fortune. Good children make very good effort. However, you have to look after your home and family. In Karachi, they had the bhatthi for 14 years. Whilst those clothes were being washed, they became so clean and beautiful. Some were torn apart and some remained dirty. Nowadays, they are hardly able to stay here for 7 days. Earlier, there was the total bhatthi. If the bhatthi hadn't been there you wouldn't have been prepared. Bricks are baked in a bhatthi (furnace). Some remain weak and some are broken. It is the same here. Many clothes tear apart. They are unable to be cleansed because they don't follow shrimat. Now you souls are engaged to the Supreme Father. Shiv Baba says: I am ever-pure. Continue to remember Me and you will continue to become pure. Practise this whilst living at home with your family. Those who are good children will start practising very quickly. They will remain happy. They will stay awake at night and wash their soul. They believe that by becoming pure they will receive pure clothes. This is why Baba says: Become those who conquer sleep. Remember the Father and the soul will become pure. The time at amrit vela is very good. Baba advises you to remember Him at that time. If you feel sleepy, then put oil in your eyes, that is, make effort. You receive shrimat to remember Baba. Even though Maya brings storms, just continue to remember Baba. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Become a complete destroyer of attachment by following shrimat. Follow the precautions and interact with yukti. Don't allow your register to be spoiled.
2. Become a conqueror of sleep and especially stay in remembrance of the Father at amrit vela to cleanse the soul. Purify the soul with knowledge and yoga.

Blessing: May you be constantly victorious and an embodiment of success by becoming a mahavir and putting every thought into a practical form.

Remain determined in whatever special thought you have. Whilst having thoughts, become the form of those and the flag of victory will be hoisted. Don't think, "I will think about this, I will see about it." To leave it to the future in this way means to become weak. To have such weak thoughts means to be defeated by Maya. Always have the immortal and imperishable thought that you are constantly victorious mahavirs who constantly move forward and become victorious. With this thought you will become an embodiment of success.

Slogan: Let there be the sparkle of happiness on your face and that cheerful face will work like a board.
