

Essence: Sweet children, study is the means to awaken your sleeping fortune. This study is the source of income through which your fortune is awakened for twenty-one births.

Question: What one speciality does this spiritual college have that no other college in the world can have?

Answer: This is the only college where there is no human guru or teacher. Incorporeal God Himself becomes the Teacher and teaches you. He is such a unique Father that He doesn't even have an image of Himself. He does not have a father or a teacher of His own. He teaches you such a study that your fortune remains awake for twenty-one births. In other studies you only make your fortune for one birth, whereas through this study you make your fortune for twenty-one births.

Song: I have come having awakened my fortune.

Om shanti. The Father sits here and explains to you children who have come to awaken their fortune. Why, what happened to their fortune? The fortune was cancelled. Bharat was fortunate; the people of Bharat were deities. Their fortune was awakened. Now the people of Bharat are the masters of hell and so their fortune is not so bright. Who is explaining this? The One who makes everyone's fortune; the One who liberates everyone from sorrow and then gives them happiness. This is now the land of sorrow. Bharat was the land of happiness five thousand years ago. Everyone's fortune was awake, whereas now it is asleep. It must definitely be the unlimited Father who awakens the fortune of the whole human world. The Father is the Creator. You now understand that all the people of Bharat used to be happy. Which people? It is not that there were so many people in the golden age. There were nine hundred thousand at the beginning of the golden age. It was the beginning of the deity religion. It is the Father, the Ocean of Knowledge, the Seed of the human world, who explains all of this. If a child is asked "Who created you?" he would say "My mother and father created me", because everyone takes birth through a mother and father. A husband doesn't give birth to his wife. He adopts her and says "You are my wife" and then children are created through her. He is a creator. He adopts a wife; he takes a kumari, who previously belonged to another family, and makes her his wife. Then, the children that are born call them "mother and father". They are a limited mother and father. A father gets his daughter married. At first, when a kumari is pure, she is given a lot of regard. Then, as soon as she becomes impure, that regard doesn't remain. It is said that a kumari is one who uplifts twenty-one generations. The Father now sits here and explains at this time that you Brahma Kumaris are now uplifting the people of Bharat for twenty-one births. All of you are kumaris. Some of you might be married, but because you have become Brahma Kumars and Kumaris, you have become brothers and sisters. You cannot use the sword of lust. There is respect for purity. Sannyasis become pure and so there is respect for them too. When there was purity in Bharat, Bharat was constantly happy. It was completely viceless. They go to the temples and sing: You are completely virtuous. In fact, your religion is not the Hindu religion. Hindustan is the place where you live. You would not call the religion of those living in Europe "European". Their religion is Christianity. The religion of those living in Hindustan is not Hinduism. It should be another religion. The Father explains that it is those who belonged to the deity religion who call themselves Hindus because they have forgotten their religion. Hinduism is not the original eternal religion. Christians believe in Christ because he established the Christian religion. Here, no one knows which religion they belong to. Someone who belongs to the Sikh religion would say: I belong to the Sikh religion. Who established the Sikh religion? They would say that Guru Nanak established it. How did he establish that religion? Only you know this. An impure soul cannot establish a religion. All the religious founders are at first pure. They then enter an impure body and establish a religion. Just as Guru Nanak had children of his own, and then a pure soul entered him and established the Sikh religion, so this Brahma too has an impure body, and Baba, the Ocean of Knowledge, enters him. You know that that One is our Father. It is the soul that says this. You now have to become soul conscious. The soul resides in the body. When someone says "I am a merchant" it is the soul that says this through his organs. The soul says: I have completed eighty-four births. The Father sits here and explains: I am the Father of all of you souls. I only descend in Bharat. I do not have a body of My own. Even Brahma, Vishnu and Shankar have subtle bodies of their own. I only descend in Bharat. They show a Shivalingam as My memorial, but I do not have such a huge form. I am a Star, just as souls are stars. Souls cannot be so large. There is a sparkling star in the centre of the forehead. Souls are very tiny. A vision of a soul usually appears to be like a white light. How many souls are there now? There will not be as many embodied souls in the golden age. If there were that many in the golden age, then there would be many billions of souls by now. However, there aren't that many. You children know that it is not a holy man or sannyasi, but the Father, who is explaining to you. This Father does not have a father. Brahma, Vishnu and Shankar have the Father. Even Krishna had a father. The unlimited Father says: I do not have a father or teacher. In the golden age, children will go to school and study how to become princes and princesses and there will be a teacher, but I do not have a teacher. I give you the teachings of Raja Yoga, but I will not become a king or an emperor. It is you children who will become that. Shri Lakshmi and Shri Narayan were worthy of worship; they ruled in the golden age. The incorporeal Father becomes present in this body in order to teach you souls. We souls are studying. He is the Ocean of Knowledge and the Ocean of Peace. Baba says: I give you My inheritance for twenty-one births. You had peace and happiness in the golden age. Ravan, the evil spirit, does not exist there. That is the completely viceless world. It is now a completely vicious world. You children know that you have now come to Baba to make your fortune. You make your fortune in a school. You study and pass and become a teacher. Here, you make your fortune for twenty-one births. Those people make their fortune for just one birth. They study in a school and earn an income for the livelihood of their body and that of others. In that school you only make your fortune for one birth; you do not become an engineer or a barrister for birth after birth. You have to study again in the next birth. That livelihood you earn for the body is only for one birth. The Father says: I give you an inheritance of peace and happiness for twenty-one births. It is the unlimited Father who says this. He does not have a father. You children say: Baba, we belong to You. Baba says: Yes children, you belonged to Me a cycle ago and you now belong to Me again. This is the love of the children for God, the Father. Souls and the Supreme Soul have been separated for a long time. Five thousand years ago too, I made you children beautiful and gave you health and wealth because this knowledge is a source of income. Fortune is created through study. That fortune is limited, whereas this one is unlimited. This is a school, not a satsang (religious gathering). When people go to satsangs, someone reads the Ramayana or the Granth to them. Baba is knowledge-full. Baba doesn't study the scriptures etc. He says: I know everything. It is only in the intellects of you children that He is the most beloved Father, the One whom everyone remembers and calls out to: Come into this impure world and give us happiness! You are the Mother and Father and we are Your children. You have come personally in front of Baba and become His children. Baba is without an image. He doesn't have an image (body) of His own. So, how could He give teachings without the support of an image (body)? Therefore, He says: I take the support of this body and teach you through this one. You understand that it is not a human guru or teacher that is teaching you. It is written, "God speaks". He is incorporeal. It is said: Salutations to deity Brahma, salutation to deity Vishnu. It is not said "God Brahma" because he is a resident of the subtle region. Deities are the creation. You cannot receive an inheritance from them. So, how could a human being give this inheritance to another human being? No one can understand these things. This is the God-Fatherly college, where God teaches. Children, I change you from humans into deities. No one else can say this. Sannyasis etc. cannot become the masters of heaven. Their path is of isolation. In the golden age there were pure deities who followed the family path. I have now come again to purify the impure. To the extent you stay in remembrance, accordingly your sins will be absolved. It is the soul that becomes impure. When alloy is mixed into gold, the jewellery made from it also contains alloy. When souls have alloy in them, they become iron aged. All are now tamopradhan, and then, when you souls become beautiful, you will receive beautiful bodies. In the golden age, you were beautiful. Then by taking eighty-four births, you became ugly. This is why Krishna is called the ugly and the beautiful one. It is not a question of just one. The whole kingdom was beautiful, but has now become ugly. Both the soul and the body have become diseased. You know that you used to be worthy-of-worship deities. From being worthy-of-worship Maya made you into worshippers. Those of the deity religion have become corrupt in their religion and their actions. They go in front of the deities and say: We are degraded sinners; we have no virtues; we are poverty-stricken and unhappy. It used to be the kingdom of deities in Bharat. Bharat was worthy of a crown. It is now the rule of people over people. They do not know the Father. You know that this old world is to be destroyed. It is said that at the time of destruction, their intellect had no love. Whose intellect? That of the Yadavas and the Kauravas, those who do not know the Father. God speaks: Your fortune, which had sunk, has now arisen. This is a study to make your fortune. Only the One who creates heaven can make you into the masters of heaven. It is Heavenly God, the Father, who creates heaven. It is Maya that makes you into the residents of hell. You sing that everyone remembers God at the time of sorrow, and that no one remembers Him at the time of happiness. The path of devotion begins in the copper age. God has to come to give the fruit of devotion. God has now come in Bharat whilst you are sitting at home. Bharat is His home. It is here that the night of Shiva is celebrated and it is here that they build temples. Shiv Baba sits here and gives you knowledge, which is also called the nectar of knowledge. He gives you knowledge in order to make you golden-aged. Therefore, He is given the name Somnath (the Lord of Nectar). Bharat is now completely poverty-stricken. You don't even have three square feet of land. Look where you sit and study! This is the largest hospital-cum-college. You are midgets. You say: Baba, I am Your twelve-month-old child. The soul speaks through the body: Baba, I am Your six-month-old child. Therefore, you are a midget. He says: I have become Yours. OK, study well now and I will take you back with Me. Sannyasis remember the brahm element. They forget the Father and remember the place where He resides. They think that the brahm element is God. However, that is their sweet illusion. How could the brahm element in which we bodiless souls reside, be called God? Or they say that they will merge with the brahm element. Souls are immortal. They have to continue to play their part. Baba sits here and explains very clearly. Although this Dada has studied the scriptures, he did not know Me. Now I tell him and his soul listens. I come and sit beside him and teach you. This one also listens. I teach you through his mouth. I make you soul conscious. There is no one in the world who is soul conscious. You children are claiming your inheritance of unlimited happiness from the unlimited Father, as you did 5000 years ago. Sannyasis etc. only keep scriptures in their intellect. Here, there is no question of scriptures. What would the Father remember? He Himself is the Master. You remember the unlimited Father. You are the Brahma Kumars and Kumaris of Prajapita Brahma. You are claiming your inheritance from the Grandfather through Brahma. The father is corporeal and the Grandfather is incorporeal. The soul of Shiv Baba is in this one. Both are incorporeal. This physical father is the father and also the mother, for you are adopted through this one. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. In order to make your fortune for twenty-one births, pay full attention to the study. Follow the elevated directions of the one Father and fill yourself with treasures.
2. Become soul conscious. Make the soul complete and pure through the pilgrimage of remembrance.

Blessing: May you be an easy yogi and experience the stage of being immune to the effect of any action by constantly being stable in the stage of a detached observer. Those who are detached from their bodily relations and their own body also become detached from this old world. Whilst coming into contact with others and seeing everything, they remain loving and detached. This stage enables them to experience easy yoga. This is known as being immune to the effect of action even whilst being in any company. Souls are not immune to the effect of action, but the stage of soul consciousness makes souls immune to the attraction of Maya. Those who maintain this stage remain safe from any attacks of Maya.

Slogan: Great souls are those who do subtle service with good wishes and pure feelings.
