

Essence: Sweet children, when you go into the lap of the Father, this world ends. Your next birth will be in the new world and this is why there is the saying, “When you die, the world is dead to you.”

Question: On the basis of which one custom can you prove the incarnation of the Father?

Answer: The custom of feeding departed spirits every year has continued in Bharat. They invoke a soul into a brahmin and speak to that soul. They ask the departed soul if he has any desires. The body doesn’t come back, just the soul comes back. This too is fixed in the drama. Just as a soul can enter, in the same way, God’s incarnation takes place. You children can explain and prove this.

Song: To live in Your lane and to die in Your lane....

Om shanti. This song is of this time and continues on the path of devotion. It is at this time, when you die alive with the Father, that the whole world also truly ends. On the path of ignorance, when human beings die, they take birth in this world. The world exists all the time. There is the saying, “When you die, the world is dead to you.” However, when a person dies, the world isn’t destroyed. That soul has to take birth again in this same world. When you die, this world too will end. You know that you will then go into the new world. Only you Brahmins know this. Because of being children of God, you receive the birthright of the golden age. You receive the sovereignty of heaven. Hell comes to an end. There is no effort in this. You simply have to remember the Father. When a person is dying, people tell him to chant the name of Rama. Finally, when they pick up the corpse, they chant, “The name of Rama is the Truth” They say of God: The name of Rama is the Truth. That is, they take the name of the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul who is the Truth. They turn the beads of a rosary whilst chanting the name of Rama. They chant continuously the name of Rama in such a way, that it is as though they are playing music. The Father is explaining to you children: You don’t have to make any sound. Simply keep Me in the intellect. You know that by going into God’s lap whilst alive, this world of sorrow ends. Baba, I will become a garland around Your neck. The rosary of Rudra is remembered. It is not said, the rosary of Rama. You are sitting in this sacrificial fire of knowledge as you did in the previous cycle in order to be threaded in the rosary of Rudra. There is no other spiritual gathering where you would understand that you will be garlanded around the neck of God, the Father. You definitely receive an inheritance from the Father. Who says, “Father”? The soul. The intellect is in the soul. Your intellect understands and then says something. First a thought arises and then it is carried out through the physical senses. Truly, I belong to Baba and will remain belonging to Baba. In this last birth, you call Him, God, the Father. So, ask them: Do you have knowledge of God, the Father? They would reply: God is omnipresent. Tell them: You, the soul, say, “Supreme Father”, so how can the Father be omnipresent? Did the Father enter the child? To call the Father omnipresent is totally wrong. Understand these things very clearly and then explain to others. The sacrificial fire of the knowledge of Rudra is very well known. Rudra is incorporeal. Krishna is a corporeal being. Ultimately, who would be called God? Krishna cannot be called that. People are very innocent. They say: God is omnipresent. The Father resides in His own home. Where else would He reside? The Father has now come into this unlimited home. He is present here. He says: I have entered this one, just like departed spirits are invoked into brahmins. For instance, when the departed spirit of someone’s father is fed, he would say: I have entered this one. I have entered this one, and so if you want to ask anything, you can do so. In the earlier days, the system of invoking departed spirits was very popular. The departed spirit is also just a soul. They feed the departed spirit, that is, the soul. They would say: Today, we are feeding everyone because of the departed spirit of my grandfather or of so-and-so. Therefore, the soul is invoked and fed. Someone who loved his wife would call her departed soul back after she had died. He would say: I promised her a diamond nose-stud. Therefore, he would invoke her into a brahmin and give her a diamond nose-stud through him. He called the soul, the body doesn’t come. This custom only exists in Bharat. It is just as when you go to the subtle region and offer bhog to someone who has died. That soul comes into the subtle region. These things are completely new. Until people understand very clearly, they have doubts as to what they (brahmins) are doing. Look at the systems and customs of brahmins. Bhog is offered in all the temples. They offer bhog to the departed spirits. They offered bhog to the soul of Guru Nanak, but where is he? They cannot understand this. You know that all those who established a religion are here, just as Baba says: I establish the Brahmin religion. He is the Purifier. Pure souls come and establish a religion. However, a satopradhan soul then has to go through the stages of sato, rajo and tamo. At this time, all souls are in the graveyard. Baba is the Purifier. He is never buried in the graveyard. Human beings cannot be called the Purifier. Purifier means the Purifier of the whole world. There cannot be anyone except the one Father who makes the impure world pure. Those people come to establish their own religions. The whole genealogical tree of the Christian religion is up there. Christ came first and then all the others followed him. Expansion continued to take place. He doesn't purify the impure. His population comes down numberwise. The Purifier is needed at this time when everyone is buried in the graveyard. He alone is the One who purifies everyone. You understand that, truly, the whole world is totally decayed at this time. They give the example of the banyan tree. The tree is very big. Its foundation is decayed but the branches and twigs are still there. This too is a tree. The roots of the foundation of the deity religion have been cut away. All the rest of the tree exists. If the Seed exists, He can carry out establishment once again. The Father says: I come and once again carry out establishment. Establishment takes place through Brahma and destruction takes place through Shankar. There truly was the destruction of the innumerable religions. Those who studied Raja Yoga at the time of the Mahabharat War then established their own kingdom. You know that you will now go to the Father and then come into the new world. The tree will then continue to grow. The deity religion that used to exist has disappeared. The Father says: I come and once again carry out establishment of the original, eternal deity religion. Bharat that was the highest on high is now eclipsed. By sitting on the pyre of lust, you souls have now become ugly. You are now sitting on the pyre of knowledge and are becoming beautiful. You had become ugly. It is the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, who makes ugly ones beautiful. You receive His shrimat. The soul of the Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, is ever-pure and beautiful. Alloy is mixed in the soul (example of gold). You know that this old world is now to be destroyed and that everyone is to die. Then, there won't be anyone left behind to tell you: Chant the name of Rama. Look, when Nehru died, his ashes were scattered all over the fields. It was understood that the fields would receive very good fertiliser. When a tree is full of insects, they use the ashes (like an insecticide) on them. This whole world will now receive so many ashes. When great sannyasis or great souls die, their ashes aren't thrown away. The highest of all are the sannyasis. So many will now die and so much fertiliser will be received. So, why would the earth not give first-class grains? In the golden age, everything is fresh. It takes time for this world to be made new. When you go to the subtle region, you are shown such big fruits and you are given mango juice to drink. So, just think how much fertiliser will be received, and specially Bharat will receive that. So many good things will emerge there in the new world. By receiving this fertiliser, the whole world will become new. You are given the mango juice of Paradise in the subtle region. You are granted visions of gardens etc. Children have had visions of that world. They go there and drink mango juice. Princes and princesses used to bring fruit from the gardens. However, there cannot be a garden in the subtle region. Surely, they must have gone to Paradise. A vision would not be granted to everyone. Those who become instruments are granted visions. It is possible that if you stay in remembrance, if you remain Baba's children, then at the end, you too will have visions. This cow-shed first had to be made. You had to be baked in the furnace, and so many came then. It has been explained to you children that people will not understand simply by being given literature. A teacher who can explain to them is definitely needed. A teacher would explain in a second: This is your Baba and this is your Dada (elder brother). This unlimited Father is the Creator of heaven. If you just give someone literature, he would look at it and then throw it away. He wouldn't understand anything. At the least, you definitely have to explain that the Father has come. It is your duty to beat the drums for this. There are truly the Yadavas and Kauravas, and the great war is also just ahead. There must definitely be someone to teach Raja Yoga. There must also be the establishment of heaven. There will be the establishment of the one religion and the destruction of innumerable religions. You know that you are changing from an ordinary man into Narayan and an ordinary woman into Lakshmi. This is our aim and objective. It didn't take God long to change human beings into deities. Only those of the sun dynasty are called deities. Those of the moon dynasty are called warriors. You first of all have to become deities. By failing you become warriors. The Father says: Sweetest beloved, long-lost and now-found children. There are so many long-lost and now-found children. Look, when someone's child is lost and then found after 6 to 8 months, he is greeted with so much love. His father would be so happy. This Father also says: Beloved, long-lost and now-found children, you have come and met Me after 5000 years. Beloved children, you became separated, and you have now met Me in order to claim your unlimited inheritance. Deity world sovereignty is your God-Fatherly birthright. Baba has come to give you the unlimited sovereignty. This One is Heavenly God, the Father. He says: I have brought such a big gift for you children. However, you have to become worthy of it. You have to follow shrimat. If after saying, "Mama, Baba", you forget Him or you divorce Him, you won't be able to become a garland around the neck. Children are loved so much. A father puts his children on his head. This unlimited Father has so many children. Baba places you so high on His head. He places on His head those who have fallen down. So, you should remain so happy. You should follow shrimat. You have to follow the shrimat of One. If you follow your own dictates, you die. If you follow shrimat you will become the most elevated human beings, that is, deities. Baba asks you with which number you will pass. The Father also says: Become part of the sun dynasty. Therefore, for this you have to follow Mama and Baba. You have to make others into spinners of the discus of self-realisation, like yourselves. When you bring others in front of Shiv Baba, He asks you how many others you have made like yourselves. These are such enjoyable things. Only you can understand them. New ones would not be able to understand at all that this is a college for changing from human beings into deities. Some are coloured very well in seven days. Some are not coloured by it at all. A lot of effort has to be made. The first thing that is explained to you children is that you first of all have to ask everyone: Do you know the unlimited Father? They say: Yes, He is in me and in you. He is omnipresent. In that case, there is no need to ask them anything further. Since you say that He is the Father, how is it possible that He is in you and me? An inheritance is received from the Father. So, first of all, explain Alpha. The Father says: My long-lost and now-found children. None of the holy men or sannyasis can say this. You know that you truly are the long-lost and now-found children of Shiv Baba. You have come and met Him again after 5000 years in order to claim your inheritance of heaven. You know that you were the masters of heaven and that you are becoming that again. You definitely have to go to heaven. Then, you have to claim a high status according to your efforts. Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Follow the mother and father and do the service of making others like yourselves. Become spinners of the discus of self-realisation and make others the same.
2. In order to become a garland around the neck of the Father, keep the Father in your intellect. Don't make any sound. Constantly stay in remembrance.

Blessing: May you be an image that grants blessings and be a great donor and transform your temporary sanskars with your eternal sanskars.

Temporary sanskars make you say things and perform actions against your wishes. This is why you say: That wasn't my intention, that wasn't my aim, but it just happened. Some say that they didn't become angry, but that their sanskar of speaking is like that. Therefore, those temporary sanskars also compel you. So, now, transform those temporary sanskars with your eternal sanskars. The original and eternal sanskars of the soul are to be constantly full, to be constantly an image that grants blessings, and a great donor.

Slogan: To cross mountains of adverse situations with the effort of the flying stage is to become a flying yogi.
