

Essence: Sweet children, if you make a mistake, do not hide it from the Father. By continuing to hide it, you will hide yourself.

Question: On what basis does the Father, who reforms that which has become spoilt, reform everything for you children?

Answer: On the basis of purity. You children know the Father comes to reform that which has been spoilt. There are many quarrels over purity. Innocent ones have to tolerate being assaulted. You cannot become a deity without becoming pure. In order to change Bharat from a shell to a diamond, to change this land of sorrow into the land of happiness, to change the old into new, you definitely have to become pure. You children help the Father in this respect. This is why, along with the Father, you children are also worshipped.

Song: No one is as unique as the Innocent Lord...

Om shanti. Did you children hear the song? Which children? You Prajapita Brahma Kumars and Kumaris heard the song. The Father says: I speak this knowledge to only the Brahma Kumars and Kumaris. You children know that no shudra kumar or Ravan kumar can sit here. Your very name is "Brahma Kumars and Kumaris," that is, the children of Prajapita Brahma. You know that the Father of your Brahma Baba is Shiva. The Father of us souls is also Shiva. That Father is the One who reforms that which has been spoilt. It is Bharat that has been spoilt and it is Bharat that He is putting right. The Father says: Bharat was like a diamond; it was the land of happiness. In the new world, Bharat was new; it was the new kingdom of deities. Now that everything of Bharat has been spoilt, it is the kingdom of devils. Who can rectify that which has been spoilt, that is, who can reform it? No one except you Brahmins knows this. Truly Bharat was very elevated, but it is now degraded. For no other religion can it be said that it was very elevated, but is now degraded. Those who lost their kingdom are once again going to rule it. Therefore, it is said: This One comes again to reform that which has been spoilt. After the golden age, the silver, copper and iron ages definitely have to come. Everything has to be spoilt again for everyone. You definitely have to go through the stages of sato, rajo and tamo. Everything at this time has been spoilt for everyone. There is a great deal of upheaval amongst all the religions. The Chinese are fighting amongst themselves and so are the Buddhists. They all fight so much amongst themselves. Everything of all the innumerable religions has been spoilt. Everyone has become tamopradhan and reached their stage of total decay. Everyone has to become tamopradhan from satopradhan. Ravan makes everyone tamopradhan and then Rama comes and reforms everything that Ravan has spoilt. You know who is called Rama. At the time when people say "Rama, Rama" and turn the beads of the rosary, they are remembering God. The very name is "the rosary of Rudra" or "the garland around the neck of Rudra, Shiva". People of all religions definitely remember that One. The Bestower of Salvation for those of all religions is Shiva. There must certainly be helpers with Him. The rosary of Rudra does a lot of service. You children have to do a great deal of service. It is because you do service that you are worshipped. People create sacrificial fires of Rudra, not only in Bharat but throughout the whole world as well, because you make the whole world pure. You take might from the Almighty Authority Father and create heaven. Therefore, the whole world should worship you children. The Father is Rudra. People make a large Shiva lingam out of clay to represent Him and they also make small saligrams. The name is "the sacrificial fire of Rudra". You are worshipped because you did service when you were here. They create sacrificial fires of Rudra and do a lot of worshipping. They create hundreds of thousands of saligrams. First of all there is the rosary of 8, then 108 and then 16,108. They are the ones who help Baba. Those who help a great deal would be close. You are now making effort to be threaded close to Rudra in the rosary. You simply have to remember the Father. It is very easy. It is very easy for children to remember their father. As soon as a child takes birth, he learns to say "Baba and Mama". So, you have become children of Baba and Mama. You also say Mother and Father. You now understand that you are sitting personally in front of the Mother and Father. The Mother and Father is giving you teachings to enable you to claim the kingdom. In fact, it should be a king giving you teachings to make you into kings, just as a barrister would teach you how to become a barrister. However, here, it is such a wonderful thing! The Supreme Father, the Supreme Soul, is the Ocean of Knowledge. He is the

World Almighty Authority. He knows all the Vedas, the scriptures and the Granth etc. He is the Incorporeal Knowledge-full, Blissful and Merciful One. He bestows mercy on everyone. He has mercy for the whole world because the whole world has become completely impure. The five elements are also tamopradhan. He also has mercy for them, so that they too become satopradhan. This is why He is called the unlimited Sarvodaya (the One who bestows unlimited mercy on all). This too is fixed in the drama. When souls become pure, everything becomes pure. Now even the elements of nature are causing so much damage. There, the elements are completely pure. No one ever becomes old there. So, the Father is the One who reforms that which has gone wrong. He is called the World Almighty Authority. That World Almighty Authority is creating a kingdom. He Himself is incorporeal, He cannot be the Emperor, the Master of the World, or one who rules the world. He is Karankaravanhar. He inspires the kingdom of deities to be established. He Himself does not rule it. You children say: We are becoming world almighty authorities, masters of the world. Then no one else will have authority over you; no one will be able to give you orders. There is no one else in the golden and silver ages. Therefore, you children have to prove that the Gita is the most elevated jewel of all scriptures and that God taught Raja Yoga. You children know that you are becoming deities from human beings. When everything of human beings has been spoilt, the Father comes to make you into deities. Everything depends on purity. Daughters write: Baba, we are assaulted a lot when we say we want to remain pure. It has been explained to you children that you have to move along with great tact. You have to be very clever in this. There is a play in which a woman cleverly performs many acts in order to save herself. The Father says: Children, you have to become conquerors of attachment in this. There are many who have strings of attachment to their children and husband. A kumari would only have attachment to her parents and brothers and sisters. After she marries, there are additions and it therefore increases. There is her husband, and mother-in-law and then, when she has children, she has so much attachment to all of them. There is double expansion. This is why first of all you have to become conquerors of attachment. Then you will also have to face tests. When a king wants to renounce his family, he first has to go to his guru. There, he is made to cut wood and clean the ashram so that his body consciousness breaks. Such systems exist here too. The poor continue do all this work anyway. Those who come from grand families have a great deal of body consciousness. Therefore, they have to be tested. In the beginning, Baba also tested all of you. In order to break body consciousness, you used to do everything - clean cars, do the laundry. So, when anyone comes, tell them that they will first have to do all of these tasks. It is very difficult for those from wealthy homes to come here. However, for the poor ones, there is the problem of being beaten. They don't allow you to remain pure. You have to interact with them tactfully, but you must definitely be complete conquerors of attachment. When you only partly conquer attachment, you have one foot on one side and the other foot on the other side and you dangle in between. Many experience sorrow by dangling in this way. By forgetting the Father they become dirty. The Father gives you many methods through which you can constantly stay in remembrance. It is through remembrance that you will become conquerors of sinful actions. Baba has been giving you shrimat cycle after cycle. The kingdom is definitely being established. Those who make effort as they did a cycle ago cannot remain hidden. They can be recognized instantly. Maids and servants also have to be created. Since you stay here and because you still remain the children, you will also come into the royal kingdom. However, you will become maids or servants and claim one status or another. Otherwise, where would the maids and servants come from? Subjects are not allowed to enter the palace; it is the maids and servants who stay in the palaces. Many say that it would be good if they even become the maids or servants of Krishna. He (Krishna) would be more in their lap than his mother's. Nowadays, nurses look after children. There, there will be great happiness experienced in looking after Krishna. All the mothers rock Krishna in the cradle on the festival of Krishna's birthday. There the maids will look after him. BapDada needs very good children. The Father says: I have to make a great deal of effort in order to establish the kingdom. There are many twigs of the various trees here. Those who look after them get fed up. Whilst moving along, some are eclipsed by such bad omens, don't even ask! Only the jaggery and its bag know this, that is, only BapDada knows. The Father is the jaggery. He is so sweet! His bag, the one He enters, knows and

He Himself knows. Maya, Ravan, slaps you in such a way that you don't even realise it. If you have disobeyed Baba, you should at least ask to be forgiven. Otherwise, you will have to endure a great deal of suffering. Some are eclipsed by Maya in such a way that, even when it is explained to them, they still do not understand. Baba himself says: Sometimes, I have very good yoga, whereas, at other times, Maya brings so many storms, don't even ask! Baba says: It is only when you first experience all of this yourself that you are then able to explain to others. So, all the storms first come to Baba. Baba tells you: Do not consider yourself to be too clever; don't think that you know everything. When your heart is clean, your elevated desires will be fulfilled. Only when your heart is clean inside and out and completely honest will the Lord be pleased with you. You children know that Baba is reforming that which has gone wrong for you. We were absolutely like monkeys. Baba is making us worthy of living in a temple. We become the masters of the world and then we receive an alcove in a temple to sit in. The golden age is called Shivalaya (Shiva Temple). We become the masters who rule the kingdom of the whole world. Later, temples are built to us in which we are worshipped. We are the first ones who worship. We were worthy of being worshipped, and then we became worshippers. We are now once again becoming worthy of being worshipped. Everything is explained to you very clearly. However, Maya spoils the head of even good children. Body consciousness causes such a great deal of damage that you commit one sin or another. Let no one disobey Shiv Baba. Let no one hide anything from Him. Dharamraj is also here to punish you a great deal. You should have fear of Him. If you disobey Baba, you have to ask to be forgiven. Write to Shiv Baba c/o of Brahma: Baba, today I made this mistake. There is the fear that Brahma will read it first. Ah! But he is your father who gives you teachings. Mama also gives you teachings. When someone tells you anything, you then give this news to Shiv Baba. Mama and Baba also come to know. A great deal is explained to you. You must not become like a wild elephant. An elephant has a great deal of body consciousness. Body consciousness causes a lot of damage. It has continued for half a cycle. There, you have the awareness that you are a soul and that you have to shed your old body and take a new one. You are said to be soul conscious there. Here, all are body conscious. Therefore, you children should continue to take shrimat. Never try to hide your mistakes. Whilst continuing to hide them, you will hide yourself and then your yoga will break. God alone has the authority to put right that which has gone wrong. You have now become His children! Achcha.

To the sweetest, beloved, long-lost and now-found children, stars of knowledge, numberwise, according to effort, love, remembrance and good morning from the Mother, the Father, BapDada. The spiritual Father says namaste to the spiritual children.

Essence for dharna:

1. Make your heart clean inside and out and thereby please the Lord, your Father. In order to be protected from being eclipsed by Maya, tell the Father everything with great honesty.
2. Become complete conquerors of attachment, and don't be pulled in the slightest way to any bodily beings. Make full effort to break body consciousness.

Blessing: May you be a knowledgeable soul who cures the self with a tablet or an injection of happiness. Brahmin children can themselves find a cure for their own illness. The nourishment of happiness is the medicine that can cure you in a second. Just as when doctors give you a powerful injection, there is immediate change, in the same way, when Brahmins give themselves the tablet of happiness or take the injection of happiness, the form of their illness changes. The light and might of knowledge helps a great deal in making the body function. When any illness comes, that is a means to give rest to your intellect.

Slogan: Only those who attain all success with the concentration and stability of the mind become the embodiments of success.
